Pray for us!

November 2024

Typically when we receive form letters, especially ones appealing for money, we toss them without reading or sometimes even opening them. So, if you've made it this far, we can only assume you're interested in what God is doing in our little corner of the world. Thank you for taking the time to read on.

We're not the only ones practicing Inner Healing Prayer. We're not the only ones offering hope and healing for emotional and spiritual wounds, but we are being obedient to God's call on our lives to minister to those He brings to us.

We do not advertise, but our schedules remain full from referrals.

We do not charge clients for our services, but we do ask them for donations of any amount to the ministry.

And once a year, we take the time to give you a glimpse into what God has done through us in hopes that you will pray for us when you see our names, or decide to join our weekly prayer team, or donate to our ministry should the Lord prompt you to do so.

Our greatest joy is to walk alongside hurting people as they learn to connect their hearts to God and find rest for their souls. They come to us with broken relationships, anger over the injustices of childhood trauma, false beliefs about God, grief over losses, shame from past choices, and deep wounds from occult and ritual abuse. We cannot fix them. We have no answers for their pain. But we do know WHO has the answers for the greatest need of their hearts—Jesus is the only One who can “satisfy the longing soul and fill the hungry soul with goodness” (Psalm 107:9).

One client wrote: “That ‘dark horrid place’ turned into a jungle; lush, vibrant, full of light, life and such sweet and air, a gentle breeze and comfortable warmth. Safe!!! I do give thanks to God for the help you were able to give me.”

Another said: "Your ministry provided first steps that may well have saved my life. Blessings to your team!"

And another: "I need to share that after the last session the effect has been an enormous relief and what feels like more space in my heart. The obvious takeaway for me is that God's grace made its way from my head to my heart. Thank you, Ladies. And that is from the bottom of my heart!"

Sadly, not every client connects easily to God. God is so very patient; He waits till we are ready to hear from Him. Our job as prayer ministers is to help people lay down their defenses and open their hearts to the Healer.

Before you toss this missive, will you say a quick prayer over our ministry? We need all the protection we can get from the enemy of our souls who would love to destroy us.

Here are some words of the Lord to our clients:

- You're not alone.
- You're not bad.
- It's not your fault.
- You are significant.
- You are loved.
- What you feel matters.
- We all have something in our lives that affects us deeply, that makes us who we are. Now you can use it to minister to others—if you allow Me to use it.
- I didn't allow the suffering to happen just because. I don't like the suffering either. I promise you there is always a greater plan.
- Believe Me when I said I was here when this happened.
- Fear not, for I am with you.
- In Him there is fullness of joy.
- I'm making all things new.
- Be still.
- Let go and give those things to God.
- I see you. I love you. You don't have to be afraid of Me. You did nothing wrong.
- They no longer have power or authority over you. Give them to Me to take care of.
- Lay this down; it's not yours to hold. Come home, sit, rest.
- Keep your focus on Me instead of your accusers.

And some of their responses:

- He's comforting me.
- I feel more compassion for "x" now.
- I have permission to feel my feelings.
- I can rest now.
- Peace, calm.
- The shame is gone.
- He wants to be my wound-healer.
- He wants to make me whole.
- I'm loved and safe with Him.
- God was closer to me than I realized.
- The heaviness is gone!
- I feel forgiven for the first time!
- This is the most powerful experience I've ever had. Thank you!
